SUBJECT: BECOMING AN INSTRUCTOR

1. FERNANDO FIGUEROA WILL COME TO YOU

I have been receiving many requests from martial arts schools and academies around the world who are interested in personal instruction in Universal Tactics CQC. However, due to my limited seminar schedule and other commitments, I am now offering my teaching services to established schools in Latin America for a flat fee of $2,000, and schools in the US and Europe for a flat fee of $4,000 or 4,000 euros.

Under this arrangement, I will come to your school or academy for a weekend, teaching up to 20 students in the selected courses from the core courses I offer. You charge the students the amount you want. The flat fee covers my teaching services, roundtrip airfare, hotel accommodation (three stars) for a minimum of three nights, taxi for three days, three dinners, training and/or instructor certificates, and an instructor package. The flat fee is all-inclusive, with no additional charges. However, an extra fee of $500.00 or 500 euros will apply to remote locations that are two hours beyond a major airport.

To begin, please suggest three potential dates that work for you. Once we agree on a date, I will send you promotional materials. Upon completion of the courses, participants will receive signed certificates and photographs. Additionally, the host school will receive instructor certification, be listed on my official website as a recommended self-defense school and have priority access to future private courses.

2. YOU CAN GO TO FERNANDO FIGUEROA

If you prefer to travel to the Dominican Republic, where Fernando Figueroa is based, you can receive private lessons directly from him there. While you're there, you can also enjoy the beautiful beaches, the historic Colonial Zone, and other local attractions during your free time

TEACH UNDER UNIVERSAL TACTICS CQC SYSTEM OR INDEPENDENTLY

Once you become a certified instructor, you can promote yourself as an official Universal Tactics CQC instructor or any other instructor package you choose to certify in. You will receive complete assistance from Fernando Figueroa and the Universal Tactics system, including legal permission to use logos and training materials, all the templates you need to teach your own RBPP courses (forms, training certificates, T-shirt design, and outlines), and be listed on the official website as a certified instructor. You also will be given. Alternatively, you can also teach independently without disclosing your source of techniques, tactics, and training methods. It is entirely up to you how you wish to market your business. The best part is that certified Universal Tactics instructors are not obligated to pay Fernando Figueroa or the Universal Tactics organization a percentage of their earnings or a yearly fee for teaching the system, unlike other systems.

Minimum Requirements

Our instructor course is not suitable for everyone. To ensure you are ready to begin, there are some requirements you must meet:
